A MAD DOG SCARE FOR SEVERAL WEEKS

Dogs, Cattle and a Valuable Horse Sacrificed.

PROSPECTING FOR COAL

Boring Down One Hundred Feet-A Lady Falls from Cistern and Breaks Her Foot-Confederate Reunion at Fishers' Hill.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) WOODSTOCK, VA., July 28 .- Considerable uneasiness and fear exists on the part of a number citizens of Mount Olive and Mount Solon, on account of a mad dog scare for the past several weeks. A dog belonging to Mr. Milton Copp was buten, and after being incarcerated for about six weeks, showed signs of hydrophobia, escaped, and is known to have bitten a number of dogs and cattle, in-cluding a valuable horse belonging to Mr. Copp. All of the canines have been killed, and every effort is being made to prevent a further outbreak in that neigh-borhood.

Mrs. C. M. Childs, of Strasburg, made a misstep a few days ago whilst sweeping the top of a cistern, and sustaining a sprained ankle and fractured several bones in her foot, which necessitated placing the injured member in a plaster cast CHURCH DEDICATION.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

The congregation of Old School Baptists on Smith Creek, near New Market, have completed their church building, and will dedicate the same on the fifth Sunday in August. Elder J. B. McInturff, superintendent of the public schools of Shenandoah county, is the pastor of this congregation.

The effort to find coal in the river hill near the Tunkard Church, near Marurertown, is being steadily pushed forward.

near the Tunkard Church, near Marurer-town, is being steadily pushed forward. After a depth of 100 feet had been reached the chippings were sent off for analysis, and when the chemist makes his report it is expected that the work will be pushed further. Should a strike be found a mine will be opened and operations a mine will be opened and operations begun at once.

The annual reunion of Rice-Neff Camp, Confederate Veterans of New Market, will be held on Friday, August 15th, at which time a large gathering of veterans and friends will be held in the grove adjacent to the Forestville switch.

TO BARBECUE AN OX.

That annual reunion of Stover Camp, Confederate Veterans of Strasburg, which will be held at Fisher's Hill on next Saturday promises to surpass anything ever held in the valley, and thousands are expected to attend. Grand Commander Smith and staff, of the Virginia Veterans, expected to attend. Grand Commander Smith and staff, of the Virginia Veterans, will be present. The oration will be delivered by Colonel B. H. Young, of Louisville, Ky., and a number of other prominent Confederates will be on the grounds. For this occasion the members of Stovers' Camp have secured a 1,600-pound ox, which will be barbecued on the grounds.

BANK AT FAIRFAX

Subscribers Scale the Stock and Elect Officers.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
FAIRFAX, VA., July 28.—The subscribers to the capital stock of the National Bank of Fairfax met i nthe courttional Bank of Fairfax met i nthe courthouse here Saturday, and decided to limit the stock of $25,690 for the present. The offering amounted to $37,500, they had to be scaled down proportionately.

The following Board of Directors were chosen: J. E. Willard, R. M. Moore, M. E. Church, S. R. Donahee, Dr. F. M. Brooks, George W. Huntt, T. B. Putnam, E. R. Swetnam and W. D. Hall, and the following officers were elected: President, R. W. Moore; Vice-President, George W. Huntt; Cashier, F. R. Ford; Secretary, Dr. F. M. Brooks.

A committee was appointed to secure

A committee was appointed to secure temporary quarters, also one to select a lot for permanent building.

Dance in Greene.

STANDARDSVILLE, VA., July 28 .-Mrs. Edgar Marshall gave a dance Thursday night in honor of Miss Anna Steavens. The young ladies present were: Miss Buford Steavens, Miss Sudie Runkel, Miss Earl Deane, Miss Mary Austin and Miss Anna Russells, of Char-lottesville. Among the gentlemen were Messrs. S. D. Estes, K. Mitchell, Z. Blakey, E. P. Pennington, T B. Davis, E. O. Crew, C. McMullen, C. Gibberns and

B. Garth. Mr. Gibson Jarrelle, who has been very sick for some time is improving slowly Misses M. Austin and Anna Russells, o Charlottesville, are visiting Miss Sudie Runkel. Miss Minnie is visiting friends in Prince William county. Mrs. L. Weaver, of Sterling, Va., is visiting her mother, Mrs. A. B. Steavens.

Bedford District Conference.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) REDFORD CITY, VA., July 28.—The dis-trict conference of the Methodist Epis-copal Church for Lynchburg District began a session at 8:30 this evening at the Methodist Church, Rev. Paul Whitehead,

There are about a hundred delegates, clerical and lay, entitled to representation, and it is expected that three-fourths of the number will attend. The conference will remain in session until Thursday.

AN OLD

SORE

Remington TYPEWRITER

The Experience of a Quarter of a Century is Escort John Lomax to Westmore- Grand Dance With Many Guests Pres-BEHIND IT land for Trial.

FEELING AGAINST THE NEGRO

STRONG FEELING.

st recent losses were those of Mr. R.

L. Waller, of Spotsylvania county, whose bain was damaged, and Mr. William Aylo, of Madison county, whose barn, with con-

AGED ONE HUNDRED AND FOUR. Isabelle Burwell, an old colored woman, who died a few days ago in Middlesex county, is said to have been 104 years old.

She has a son now living in the same county who is seventy years old and who residence of Mr. Absalom Walle, in Spot-

Not Taken to Montroses.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

TRIAL POSTPONED

Judge Beale Would Take No Chances

as to Jurors.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

John Lemax for assault upon Miss Sissie

Costenbader did not come off at Mont-ross to-day Judge Beale decided under the new Constitution he had no right to empanel a jury until the Legislature had passed a bill remedying the trouble. If this is done the prisoner will be brought from Alexandria, where he has Troops Return.

norrow. The Washington Guards, therefore, returned here to-night from Alexandria and Lomax is still in fail in that city.

WARSAW, VA., July 29.-The trial of most attractive in that section.

The Culpeper Railroad Subscription Case Postponed Owing to Illness of The Confidence of the Business World is Counsel-Rich Veins of Gold WITH IT and Copper Found. An ever-widening field of usefulness is

.emington Standard Typewrite: Company, 706 East Main St., Richmond, Va.

BEFORE IT

MYSTERY VEILS THE DEATH OF EAGER

Impossible to Tell Whether it Was Suicide or That He Was Knocked Overboard

(Spec'al Dispatch to The Times.) NEWPORT NEWS, VA., July 28.-A mystery surrounds the finding of the body of J. H. Eager, of Norfolk, cast up on the beach about a mile above Buckroe last evening. The corpse had been in the water some time and was in a bad state of decomposition. Letters found on the body indicated that he was employed by the White hardware Company, of Nor-folk. Two letters from his wife, Mrs. folk. Two letters from his wife, Mrs. Lizzie M. Eager, were found, written from Albion, Fla. These letters were affectionate and showed that Eager was in straitened circumstances.

It is impossible to tell whether Eager committed suicue or was knocked overboard from a boat. There were abrasions about the head that might point to murder. Not a cent of money was found on him. Eugene Turnbull, a prominent Hampton merchant, and Miss Annie Carmines, of this city, surprised their friends by mar-rying and slipping off on the boat for Washington last night. Inox have known each other form months. each other four months.

COUNTRY DRAMA

'Uncle Rube" Rendered by Ameteur Talent in Cumberland.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUNNYSIDE, VA., July 28.—On the lawn at "Green Level," the residence of Mr. Edward Byenley, the young people of Sunnyside presented last Thursday evening to an audience of about 200 the charming country drama entitled "Uncle Rube."

Mr. Maynard French ably acted the part of "Uncle Rube, assisted by Kent Flippen, Thomas Clarke, Hugh French, Robert Gills, Thomas Goodman, Cabell Branch, Brazeal Hobson, ...ss Alice Hobson and Misses Eva and Mollie Byerley.

Miss McLaurin and Miss Bagby, of Ballsville, added very much to the programme by rendering delightful solos between acts.

Music was furnished by Captain Tony Mr. Maynard French ably acted the part Music was furnished by Captain Tony Music was furnished by captain Tolly Miller and Mr. William T. Shirey, of Richmond, and Mr. Coly Neal, of Petersburg. Refreshments were served on the grends between the acts.

The stage and grounds were beautifully. rated and the crowd was comfortably

FATAL BLOW WITH AN AXE

Ed. Hawkins Kills York Watkins, Who Threatened to Shoot Him.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
LAWRENCEVILLE, VA., July 28.—
York Watkins was killed in the neighborhood of White Plains, in this county, yesterday by Ed. Hawkins, the favorite veapon, an axe, being used. Watkins went to Hawkins' house, insulted him in his yard and threatened to hoot him, whereupon Hawkins seized ar we and struck him in the breast with the blade of same. Watkins died in about two minutes. Hawkins went to a con-stable and gave himself up, and was brought here and put in jail to-day. Both arties are colored.

George Moore Councill.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) ispecial Dispatch to The Times, Biscoe, VA., July 28.—At Aberdeen, on Sunday morning, the 27th, Mr. George-Moore Councill, only son of Colonel and Mrs. J. C. Councill, died after a severe illuers of a few days. Mr. Councill had been an invalid for many years. He was a Joving, faithful son and a beautiful Christian ripe for heaven Thristian, ripe for heaven, Fine Lumber Burned.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) BIG STONE GAP, VA., July 28.-At Wise this evening a house belonging to John Hale, a lumberman, caught fire and burned down. It is said to have con-tained a lot of valuable lumber, rni though the loss has not been estimated, yet it is said to be very heavy.

Will sour the sweetest disposition and transform the most even tempered, lovable nature into a cross-grained and irritable individual.

If impatience or fault-finding are ever excusable it is when the body is tortured by an cating and painful sore. It is truly discouraging to find after months of diligent and faithful use of external remedies that the place remains as defiant, angry and offensive as ever. Every chronic sore, no matter on what part of the body it comes, is an evidence of some previous constitutional or organic trouble, and that the dregs of these diseases remain in the system; or, it may be that some long hidden poison—perhaps Cancer—has come to the surface and begun its destructive work.

The blood must be purified before the sore will fill up with healthy flesh and the skin regains its natural color. It is through the circulation that the acrid, corroding fluids are carried to the sore or ulcer and keep it irritated and inflamed, S. S. S. will purify and invigorate the stagnant blood when all sediment or other hurtful materials are washed out, fresh rich blood is carried to the diseased parts, new tissues form, and the decaying flesh begins to have a healthy and natural look; the discharge ceases and the sore heals. S. S. S. is the only blood purifier

Several years ago, my wife had a severe sore leg and was treated by the best physicians but received no benefit. Our druggist advised her to try S. S. S., which she did. Fourteen bottles cured her and she has been well ever since.

J. R. MAROLD, 22 Canal St.,
Cohoes, N. Y.

that is guaranteed entirely vegetable. It builds up the blood and tones up the general system as no other medicine does. If you have a sore of any kind, write us and get the advice of experienced and skilled physicians for which no charge is made. Book on Blood and Skin THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

WILCOX IS HOPEFUL Confident of a New Trial and of Ultiyaching will follow.

mate Acquittal. (Special Dispatch to The Times.) NORFOLK, VA., July 28.—Jim Wilcox, now in jail at Elizabeth City, N. C., for the murder of Nell Cropsey, declares that city.

he is confident of a new trial on appeal to the Supreme Court. He says that an effort will be made by his friends for a special meeting of the court in Sep-

He is still an inveterate cigarette smoker, but bears prison life cheerfully, and believes he will be acquitted. PROTECT PRISONER

GAY AT AFTON

ent-Ex-Sec'y Herbert Improves. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

AFTON, VA., July 28.-The Afton House was a brilliant scene of light and beauty on Friday evening, when a dance was given by the young men of the hotel and given by the young men of the hotel and neighborhood. Music was furnished by a band from Richmond, and it was voted the most delightful dance at Afton for seve-ral seasons. Invitations had been sent out to the guests at the various hotels in the mountains, and, with the guests al-ready at Afton, the ball-room was filled almost to overflowing.

almost to overflowing.

Many handsome gowns were worn.

Among the most conspicuous were noticed (Special Dispatch to The Times.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 28.— The Washington Guards, of this city, un-der command of Captain M. B. Rowe, left here to-day on the 10:41 train, in accord-Mrs. W. B. Saunders, of Richmond, white mousseline de soie, real lace and dia-monds; Miss Hunt, Richmond, white crepe de chine, lace applique, diamond orna here to-day on the 10:41 train, in accordance with orders from Governor A. J. Montague, and proceeded to Alexandria and reported to Sheriff W. H. Tyler, of Westmoreland county, who had in charge the negro prisoner, John Lomax, whose trial for attempting to assault Miss Susic Costenbader, near Potomac Mills, several weeks ago, comes up in the Westmoreland County Court to-morrow at 11 o'clock. Captain Rowe and his company, Sheriff Tyler and the prisoner, left Alexandria this afternoon on the steamer Randall for Nomini Wharf, on Nomini Creek, in Westmoreland county, which point will be reached early to-morrow morning. The prisoner will then be placed in a covered wagon and closely guarded by the milide chine, lace applique, diamond orna-ments; Miss Sue MacHenry, Kentucky, pink liberty silk with diamond ornaments; Mrs. John J. MacHenry, Kentucky, im-ported gown of white lace and diamonds; Miss E. Constance Rowe, New York, dotted Swiss with lace trimmings; Miss Sue Wright, Waynesboro, silk mull and Sue Wright, Waynesboro, silk mull and roses; Miss Lena Spitler, Staunton, gray silk; Misses Young, Richmond, white organdle; Mrs. Walter Mercer, Richmond, white organdle; Mrs. Wayt, Little Rock, Ark., black lace and diamonds.

Among others present were Mrs. Gorman, Kentucky; Miss Patterson, Mrs. Lambert, Waynesboro; Misses Goodwin, Miss Hamilton, Staunton; Misses Goodloc, Onan; Miss Bally White, Atlanta; Miss Care

wagon and closely guarded by the mili-tary, will be conveyed across the country six miles to Montross, the country seat of Westmoreland, where the trial will be ton; Miss Lily White, Atlanta; Miss Carter, Louisa; Miss Seman, Texas; Miss Gilman, Richmond; Miss Valz, Staunton; Miss Weisiger, Miss Lumsden, Rich-mond; Messrs, White Langhorne, Charles Dear, — Purcell, Purcell McCue and John McCue, Greenwood; Messrs, Lamproceeded with without delay. It is thought that a verdict will be promptly John McCue, Greenwood; Messrs. Lambert, Warwick; Scott, Sam. Goodloe, Hamilton; James Lumsden, D. Mack Lumsden, J. Ezekiel Hall, Will McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Thomson, Texas, and many others.

Refreshments were served at 12 o'clock by the hotel, and dancing was kept up until about 2 A. M.

Ex-Secretary, H. A. Herbert, of Wash-There is considerable feeling in West-mereland against Lomax, and Governor Montague ordered the military there to prevent any attempt at lynching the pris-oner, feeling assured that he will be dealt oner, feeling assured that he will be dealt with promptly and justly through the regular course of the trial in the court. The Washington Guards are composed of some of the leading young business men of the city, and the company is not only an excellent one in personnel, but is one of the best disciplined companies in the State, and if any trouble should arise it Ex-Secretary H. A. Herbert, of Washington, D. C., who has been seriously ill at his home, and who was brought to Afton last week, is steadily improving. His daughter, Mrs. Micou, is with him, and it is thought the bracing air will completely restore him to health and will be equal to the emergency. Captain Rowe, the commander, is one of the lead-ing business men of the city and a large white, of Atlanta, and Miss Lily White, of Atlanta, and are visiting M.S. T. W. Goodloe at Locust Dale.

Mr. Fensom, of Richmond, and Mr. and property owner.

The citizens of Culpeper county, who

The citizens of Culpeper county, who preposed to fight the issuance of county bonds for $50,000 to the capital stock of the Fredericksburg and Rappahannock Railroad Company, which was voted for in a recent election, have secured a postponement of the case, owing to the Illness of their counsel, Mr. George D. Gray. The case was to be tried this menth, but will come up later.

RICH VEINS.

Rich veins of gold and copper have been Mrs. Will Lipscombe, of Charlottesville, are also at Locust Dale. Mrs. C. G. Graves, of Richmond, is at

Mrs. C. G. Graves, of Richmond, is at the Kirty House.
Dr. J. B. Hawthorne, who has been indisposed, is improving.
J. W. Rodes, wife and daughters, of Texas, are registered at the Afton House.
Miss Nora Lanhorne, of "Mirador," is visiting Miss Brown at Afton.
Mrs. Ben. Howard, of Richmond, one of the most popular guests at the Afton of the most popular guests at the Afton House, will spend August here.

RICH VEINS. Rich veins of gold and copper have been found on the farm of Mr. W. H. Alger, near Nasons, in Orange county, and efforts are being made to form a stock con.pany to work the property. Rev. A. B. Mitchell, who has resigned the pastorate of St. David's Church, in King and Queen county, to take effect August 1st, will go to Baltimore September 15th to assume his duties as assistant at Christ Church, in that city, to which has been called. Mr. Joseph Embrey, a well known citizen, and son of the late Isaac Embrey, of JUDGE MORTON, NOT MASON

Dr. Mercer Conducting Meetings at Gold Mine Baptist Church.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

zen, and son of the late Isaac Embrey, of Spotsylvania county, died at his home here yesterday after a lingering illness, aged fifty years. A widow and one child LOUISA, VA., July 28.-The argument referred to under the caption "Local Option and Police Power of States," on the editorial page of Sunday's Times, was Electrical storms continue to do damage in this section, and more property has been destroyed by fire caused by lightning than for a number of years past. Among the heard by Judge Morton, of Orange, in-stead of Judge Mason.

Judge Mason presides over the Circuit

Court, and may have to hear argument of the same case on appeal, as the de fendant is considering the advisability of having the highest courts pass upon it. Dr. Mercer, of Richmond, is conducting a series of meetings at Gold Mine Baptist of Madison county, whose barn, with contents, including one horse, was entirely consumed, and Mr. William H. Hefin, a prominent farmer of Rock Hill neighborhood, in Stafford county, who lost his barn and all of its contents, including a pair of horses, farming implements, harnesses and a quantity of hay and wheat, the loss on which was nearly $2,000; partly insured. Church about seven miles from town Rev. R. A. Williams, the pastor, is assisting him. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. P. B

Posten is somewhat improved, though still a very sick child.

PANIC IN A STORM

Cloudburst at a Camp Meeting Causes a Rush for Shelter-Number Hurt. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

or a child by her third marriage.

Ccuncilman George W. Wroten, of this city, has contracted for the work of remodeling and building additions to the WINCHESTER, VA., July 28.-The last day of the White Post camp meeting was marked yesterday by one of the sylvania county, and when the work is completed his home will be one of the heaviest storms that has fallen in that vicinity. For two hours rain descended in such blinding sheets that persons could not be seen ten feet apart. It was the afterioon service, and the large congregation becoming freightened made mad rush for shelter. A number of wo-men fainted. Jack Hardesty had his toe broken, Miss Vernie Renner's foot was badly mashed and Miss Minnie Hay-ALEXANDRIA, VA., July 28.—Homer was not taken to Montross this afternoon as was anticipated. It is said, however, that the reason Homer was not taken was on account of the uncertainty in maker was thrown to the ground and knocked | unconscious. The adjacent streams were soon roaring torrents, and many persons could not reach home unsome provisions of the new State Consti-tution in regard to juries. Homer will be held subject to orders. The military left here for Fredericksburg on the 5:17 til this morning.

Mrs. Richard Drowns, sister of Mrs. E. M. Houston, of this city, died in Alexandria last night. She was a Miss Allen, of Harrisonburg.

Reports from Hunting Ridge state that hall fell there last Friday in such quar titles that in some ravines it was a foot

Evan Hiett, a prominent West Virginia farmer, died yesterday near Capon Bridge, aged eighty-six years.

HALIFAX COUNTY COURT

The Opponents of Glass Concede the County to Him by Good Majority. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

been in jail for safe-keeping and placed on trial next week. The attendance at court to-day was large, and great was the disappointment HOUSTON, VA., July 29.-Judge W. R. Barksdale, who was sick last court, returned home last Saturday after a brief when it was found that the trial would sojourn at Chase City, very much im not take place. Some went so far as to dam the new Constitution. Miss Cos-tenbader and mother were present. The girl does not seem to be over thirteen proved in health and strength, and held Halifax county court here to-day. A small crowd was in attendance and very little business was done. The grand jury years of age, and conducting herself with returned only one indictment, that against years of age, and the becoming modesty.

It is safe to predict that if for any reason there is a miscarriage of justice Thomas Donahue for breaking into the mill of A. G. Pool. A bench warrant was issued and he will probably be tried tomorrow. Several civil cases are set for trial later in the week. None of the can-didates for Congress were present, but I roops Heturn.

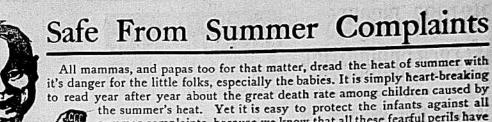

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 28.—It having been determined that a competent jury cannot be secured at this time, owing to requirements of the new Constitution, it was decided this afternoon not to try John Lomax, the assailant of Miss Costenbader, at Montross to-morrow.

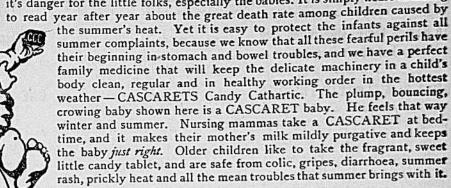

didates for Congress were Glass campaign buttons we evidence. Ar. Glass' oppoint the county by 800 friends claim that his manned larger. They are act and are using every effort to full vote at each precinct. Glass campaign buttons were largely in evidence. Ar. Glass' opponents concede him the county by 600 majority. His friends claim that his majority will be much larger. They are active and alert and are using every effort to get out their

A New Vestryman. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., July 28.—The vestry of Bruton Parish Church Saturday night elected Mr. W. H. Macon as junior

Mrs. H. G. Spence, of this city, left this morning for Staunton, Va., to spend this morning for our hot summer.

Mrs. John W. Goode, of 2607 East Marshall Street, and Miss Ida Knight, of 2809 East Clay Street, Richmond, Va., are the guests of Mrs. H. A. Graves, of this

Best for the Bowels. All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C. C. G. Guarranteed to cure or your money back. Sample and booklet free. Address Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

NORFOLK THIEF VISITS PETERSBURG

Captured, and a Stolen Diamond He Threw Away.

WHITE MORTALITY GREATER

Unusual Mortuary Conditions Show by the Report Since First of July. Mary Carter's Assailant Jailed. Tri-City Base-ball League.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
PETERSBURG, VA., July 28.—£ negro named Nathan, alias P. G., who came here to-day on an excursion from Norfolk, Va., was arrested for stealing a diamond ring from A. D. Harding, the jeweler. The ring was recovered in an alley-way, where he threw it when pursued. He is said to be a notorious this. alley-way, where he threw it when put-sued. He is said to be a notorious thief. There were thirty-four deaths in Pe-tersburg during the month ending July 28th, one-half of the number occurring among infants. The mertailty during the month was slightly larger among the whites than among the negroes—the larger rate of deaths usually being the other way. QUARRYMAN RESIGNS. QUARRYMAN RESIGNS.

Mr. J. H. Carter, for several years the manager of the granite works in Dinwiddie county, will resign that position this week. He has the choice of positions offered him in New York and Butte, Mon-

Daisy Price, colored, was sentenced to three months in jail by the Mayor this merning for unlawfully cutting and wounding a Richmond woman named Mary Carter.

Hey, William H. W. Battle, paster of the First Baptist Church, who will leave this need for his vacation, appropries that the First Baptist Church, who will ease this week for his vacation, announces that his pulpit will be supplied by Rev. Dr. Woodfin, of Hampton; Rev. Dr. A. E. Cwen, of Norfolk; Rev. Dr. Wicker, of Trenton, N. J., and Rev. Dr. Garrett, of Fortsmouth. During August Dr. Battle will hold services at several country churches. churches.

Mr. Charles Watson left yesterday to spend some weeks on the coast of Maine, and Mr. Herbert Harrison and Mr. R. M. Woody have gone on a pleasure trip to Nova Scotia

BASE-BALL LEAGUE.
Parties interested in forming a tri-city base-ball league will meet in Richmond this week to consider that matter, Captain Ragland went to Wilmington, N. C., yesterday for George Phillips, who is charged with a felony here. It is probable that the accused will consent to re-turn to Petersburg with a requisition. The amusement loving people here re-gret very much the necessity for closing the Ferndale Park Casino, but Mr. Wells promises to send a company here occa-sicually.

No signs yet of a Republican candidate for Congress in the Fourth District, but the matter is being considerably talked

CLAYTOR AT HOME

Makes an Address at Bedford City Col. Bowman Also Speaks.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

BEDFORD CITY, VA., July 28.—Senator Graham Claytor, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the Sixth District, addressed a large and enthusiastic crowd of voters in the courtroom at the noon recess to-day. An unusually large concourse of voters were in town, and the political caudiern was at the seething point. The claims are made that a large vote will be polled on Saturday and that Mr. Claytor's county will stand by him handsomely.

stand by him handsomely.

Mr. Claytor's speech was simply a statement of his vote on the liability bill, his attitude towards pensions and organied labor. "In sifting the matter to the bottom." Mr. Claytor said, "the undoubted fact remains that I voted for the employers liability bill and Mr. Glass against it."

it."

Mr. Claytor says he will carry Montgomery and Roanoke city, and in Halifax and Charlotte the vote will be close. Mr. Claytor will spend the entire week in the county addressing voters at various places until Friday, when he will speak in Lynchburg, having been invited there by certain labor organizations.

Mr. Glass friends were also very astir in soliciting votes for their candidate, Colonel A. M. Bowman was likewise in the city making friends. He spoke briefly in the Courthouse.

The negroes held a meeting to-day to raise funds to pay the attorneys employed to contest the constitutionality of the suffrage clause of the new Constitution.

SEVERELY KICKED BY HORSE

Installation of Officers by Odd Fellows Elegant Entertainment. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

CREWE, VA., July 28.—Mr. W. A. Laneave, a prominent grocer here, had a narrow escape from death Saturday. He was stooping down examining the hoof of one of his work-horses when the animal, to his surprise, gave him a violent kick, landing him several yards distant. He was struck on the neck just under the right ear, bruising the whole side of his face. The wonder is that his neck was not broken.

The Independent Order of Odd-Fel-

Morgan R. Mills & Co. Sales Agents for the ## Pasteur and Hygeia Germ-Proof Water Filters.

These are home necessities at small cost. We give prompt attention to all repair orders for plumbing, tinning, stoves and ranges.

28 N. 9th Street.

Phone 1110.

of music made glad the hearts of happy youths and fair maidens. At 10:30 the charming young hostess served cream and cake on the moon-lit plazza.

Mr. Algie Gates, former bookkeeper for E. F. Locket and Co., left last week for Newport News, where he has entered into business with the Kenny Tea Co. Misses Mary Sheffield and Kate Moore have returned from Charlottesville much pleased with the school of methods.

Mr. Walter Carson, night operator in the superintendent's office, has left Crewe for his home at Concord.

Mr. Theodore Low, general division superintendent of Norfolk and Western, is still in the hospital at Roanoke, but is much improved in health.

is much improved in health.

Mr. F. L. Dunn, of Petersburg, has accepted a position as operator here in the superintendent's office.

Mr. Baster Jones, yardmaster for the Norfik and Western here, leaves Tuesday with his family for Clifton Forge.

He will be absent a week, or ten days.

Miss Flossle Moore, a nurse from the Virging Hospital, is spending some time.

Virginia Hospital, is spending some time with relatives here. Misses Birdle West and Nettle White, of Suffolk, are visiting Mrs. George West of Suffolk, are visiting Mrs. George West on Virginia Aveaue.

The children belonging to the George Hudson Mission Band will give a lawn party on the lot adjoining the Presby-terian Church Tuesday night.

Mrs. Emma Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, of New York, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Rittenhouse.

THE ROCKBRIDGE BATHS

An Ideal Resort Has Been Improved and Rehabilitated.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) ROCKBRIDGE BATHS, VA., July 28. ROCKBRIDGE BATHS, VA., July 28.— This delightful spot, twelve miles west of Lexington, encircled by beautiful moun-tains, with the clear waters of North River flowing peacefully by, is an ideal summer home. Mr. Walter E. L. Stark, the genial proprietor, has spared neither pains nor expense to make the Baths equal to any of its neighboring resorts, and Mr. Samuel Lotts, the efficient and accommodating manager, is untiring in his efforts to provide for the comfort his efforts to provide for the comfort of the guests. For some few years past this justly famed resort was permitted to lapse into "inocuous desuetude," but under the wise direction of the present management it ty. A fe wmiles distant is the famous "Goshen Pass," whose wild and matchless beauty, enhanced in the spring time by the wealth of flowers, elicited from Com-modore M. F. Maury, the request that his hody after death should be "carried through Goshen Pass, when the laurel is in bloom." The baths are exilarating. and there is abundance of mineral waters—magnesia, sulphur, and lihia. Fishing and boating on the river are pleasant pastimes.

Among the numerous guests at the hotels and in the cottages are: From Richmond—Mrs. H. L. Spliman, Miss Richmond—Mrs. H. L. Spilman, Miss Spilman and Sue Spilman, Miss Hannle Ellett, Miss Josephine Ellett, Tazewell Ellett, Jr., Miss Camilla Wellford, Miss Alice Lee and Miss L. T. Leigh; from Danville—Mr. and Mrs. Julian Meade, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Friend, Mr. and Mrs. Manuelle, Schoolfield: Messrs, T. E. Wiland Mrs. John C. Friend, Mr. and Mrs. Henry O. Schoolfield; Messrs. T. E. Wilson and T. H. Mish, of Staunton, Messrs. W. B. Macfarland, R. J. Jawn, and D. C. Quick, of Craigsville; Miss Mary Mclung, and Mr. C. N. Wandless, of Millbord; Springs; Mrs. William J. Mahoney and Miss Mahoney of Ironton, O'. Professor Miss Mahoney, of Ironton, Of: Professor and Mrs. Willis Bocock, of Athens. Ga.; Messrs. John R. Gilliam and J. Clinton Kinnear, of Lynchburg; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Shields, and family, and others, of Lexington, be-sides guests from New York, Philadelphia, altimore and other cities.

GUESTS AT MASSANETTA

Mr. Wilson Robins Seriously Hurts His Knee.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
MASSANETTA, SPRINGS, VA., July
28.—Among the guests at this place are Mrs. Anson Dodge, of Alexandria, Va.; Mrs. Anna Dodge, of St. Simond's Island, Ga., Mrs. Ashby Miller and two children, Alexandria, Va.; Mr. E. Phillips, Gordons-ville, Va.; Mrs. Bedford Brown and his grand-daughter, Miss Mary Glen Uhler, Alexandria, Va.; Mrs. T. C. Gordon, Mr. Wilson Robin and Mrs. Josephine Jones, and her two children, all from Richmond. Croquet, Bowling, walking, cards and dancing are much in vogue here at present and there is no trouble to get up an enthusiastic lot of players for any of

The Independent Order of Oid-Fellows held their regular meeting Thursday night. District Deputy Curries, of Petersburg, was present and installed the following officers: H. D. Weatherford, noble grand; P. J. Crannis, vicegrand; J. W. Wheary, recording secretary; T. J. Sowers, corresponding secretary; T. J. Sowers, corresponding secretary; C. Stern, treasurer.

Miss Ruth Andrews entertained Friday night in honor of her visitors here, Misses Susie and Lelia Cot, of Smithfield, and Miss Lizzie Lee Mahon, of Caroline county. A delightful evening was spent in games, a number of which were played in the beautiful yard with its velvety carpet of green grass. The musicians were stationed on the porch screaned by clambering wines, and the swee.

LGALIN, A Soluble Teeth Powder. Preservative, antiseptic, refreshing, delightful. No chalk, pumice, or gritty substance. Sold as a powder, but easily converted into a delightfull iquid Dentiffice and Mouth Wash. A 25c. bottle will last six times as long as any other preparation; but though Alcalin is the cheapest, it is the purest and most effective

ENTIFICE on the market, an absolute destroyer of all germ life. Ask your druggist for Alcalin. Free Samples at Dentists.

In addition to the rural free delivery service, a new star route has been put on between Harrisonburg and Massanetta Springs, which will be until October 15th. This mail arrives at Harrisonburg at 11 A. M. and leaves at 3 P. M. The new route is much more satisfac-tory to the guests at this place than the former one. On Tuesday evening the parlor present-July. Several of the guests were seated around a fire of blazing oak logs. This called forth the remark that Massa-netta must be the "Klondyke of the W. Kyger, Esq., of Port Republic, near this place, is the proud possessor of one of the most remarkable animals on re-cord. It is a four-months old colt. and can be driven with perfect safety to a sulky. So well is the little fellow trained, that it can be guided so as to turn and make a perfect figure eight.

SIR ARTHUR LAKING

Noted English Surgeon to Attend . Vanderbilt at Biltmore.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
NORFOLK, VA., July 28.-Sir Arthur Laking, fermerly surgeen of the Sixteenth Yeomanry, British army, and a cousin of Dr. Laking, one of King Edward's physicians, passed through here this morning for Asheville, N. C. Just what Dr. Laking's object at Asheville is, is not known. The distinguished physician said he was going to the mountains of North Carolina on a recreation trip, but rumor has it he will attend one of the Vanderbilts at "Bitterses" the calculation of George Vanderbilts at the calculation of the palential home of George Vanderbilts at "Bitterses". nore," the palatial home of George Van-

Dr. Laking was in the South African campaign and tells an interesting narrative of the British troops' encounters with

He says King Edward's recovery is now almost assured.

Dr. Laking has about ten trunks and is accompanied by a valet, John Fitz-

A friend of Jim Wilcox, who called to A friend see the noted prisoner at the Elizabeth City jail, says he found Wilcox in good lealth and hopeful of a new trial by the Supreme Court. Wilcox is quoted as say-ing that if he is acquitted of the Crop-soy murder, he will leave North Carolina

